Rental Activity Income

7) 4) 2023

her own support during 2012.

To claim another person as a dependent on someone else's tax return.

A person is permanently and totally disabled if, at any time during the year, he or she cannot engage in any substantial gainful activity because of:

1. A relative of the taxpayer must be:
   • A brother, sister, half brother, half sister, or a son or daughter of either of these (such as a niece or nephew), or
   • A brother, sister, or a son or daughter of either of these (such as a niece or nephew), or
   • A descendant of any of these, such as the taxpayer's grandchild, the taxpayer, or spouse of taxpayer if filing jointly, cannot be claimed as a dependent on someone else's tax return.

Exception to Gross Income Test,

The relative must have gross income of less than $4,400 in 2022.

The relative must not be a qualifying child of any other person in 2012.

Material participation?

The relative may be treated as having provided over half of the relative's support in 2012. This test is not subject to passive loss limits.
